Report on- Engineer's Day Celebration

Program Name : - Engineer's Day Celebration
Venue :- Seminar Hall, Mechanical Department
Date and Time :- 15th September 2025, 4.30 pm onwards

The Mechanical Engineering Department of Sharad Institute of Technology, College of Engineering, Yadav proudly celebrated Engineers' Day on 15th September 2025, in honor of the birth anniversary of the eminent engineer and statesman, Mokshagundam Vishveshwaraya. The event was meticulously organized by the Mechanical Engineering Students' Association (MESA), aiming to inspire students and faculty alike by highlighting the remarkable contributions of engineers to society and nation-building.

The celebration commenced at 4:30 PM in the Mechanical Department, with the presence of all students, teaching faculty members, and non-teaching staff. The program began with a solemn photo poojan, a traditional tribute to Mokshagundam Vishveshwaraya. This ritual was performed by Mr. M. B. Patil, Mr. A. A. Khot, and Mr. R. B. Sukhasare, marking the start of the event with reverence and respect.

Following the poojan, the Head of Department, Dr. S. D. Patil, addressed the gathering. In his address, he emphasized the importance of Engineers' Day, celebrating the role of engineers in shaping modern society and contributing to technological advancement. He highlighted the life and achievements of Mokshagundam Vishveshwaraya, stressing his visionary work in irrigation, infrastructure, and industrial development, and how his legacy continues to inspire current and future generations of engineers.

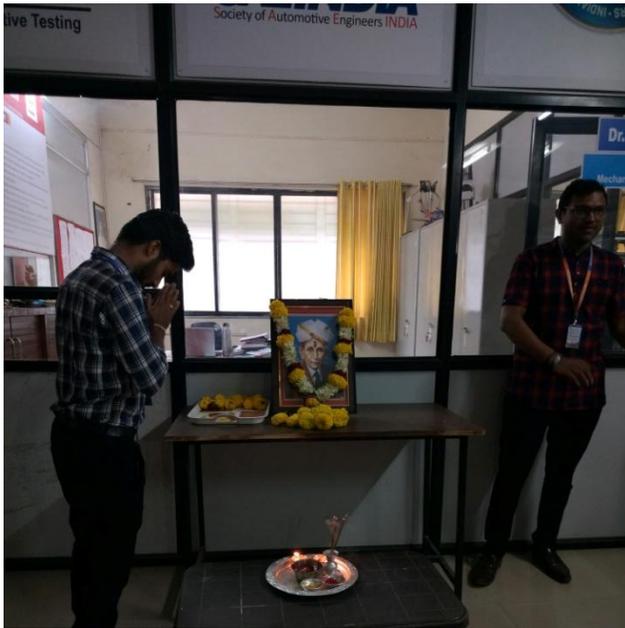

The program further included interactive discussions where students shared their views on engineering innovations and their responsibilities toward society. This created an engaging environment for learning and reflection.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. A. A. Khot, MESA Faculty Coordinator, who expressed gratitude to all participants, staff, and students for their enthusiastic involvement, making the event a resounding success. He also appreciated the efforts of MESA in organizing the program smoothly and meaningfully.

The Engineers' Day celebration not only honored the memory of Mokshagundam Vishveshwaraya but also served as an inspiration for the students to pursue excellence in engineering, innovation, and professional ethics. The event strengthened the sense of community within the department and reinforced the importance of commemorating great contributors to the engineering profession.
